

DO I NEED TO PURCHASE ADMISSION TO ENJOY THESE EVENTS?

YOUTH CONTESTS - September 26 - 27

NO - Youth contests planned for the Saturday and Sunday before Expo do not require gate admission to spectate, but please note that other available activities and amenities - such as food and shopping options - will be extremely limited.

NETWORKING - September 27 - October 2

DEPENDS - There are countless networking opportunities while at World Dairy Expo. All events happening on days that admission is required (Tuesday, September 29 through Friday, October 2), will require you to purchase admission. In addition, some of these nightly events may require special tickets to attend. We recommend checking with the specific event if that is the case.

DAIRY CATTLE SHOW - September 27 - October 2

DEPENDS - Breed shows scheduled Tuesday, September 29 through Friday, October 2 require gate admission to spectate. A handful of shows that take place or start before September 29 will not have required admission - however, please note that all other activities and amenities - such as food and shopping options - will be extremely limited. If you're unable to join us, the Dairy Cattle Show will also be available to watch on ExpoTV.

EDUCATION - September 29 - October 2

YES - All educational offerings will be on days that gate admission is required. If you're unable to join us in person, you can also watch most of Expo's educational offerings on ExpoTV.

TRADE SHOW - September 29 - October 2

YES - Expo's world-renowned Trade Show runs only on the days that gate admission is required. View the list of participating companies and plan your trip on our website or on Expo's mobile event app.

PURCHASING ADMISSION GRANTS ACCESS TO ALL DAILY ACTIVITIES (UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED)
